Property Description

Located at the crest of Glebe Hill in Tucker's Town, The Glebe House commands stunning views overlooking Bermuda's breathtaking South Shore. The property sits on an acre of some of the most coveted residential land in Bermuda, offering both serenity and privacy. Designed by a protégé of Frank Lloyd Wright and built in 1960, there has been upgrades over the years which continue to enhance the appeal of the estate. The home has the distinction of being the former private retreat of Lord Martonmere, a Governor of Bermuda. Built for entertaining, with multiple outdoor entertaining areas, the outdoor entertaining area features a large pool and pool deck plus supporting pool house overlooking the Mid-Ocean golf course and beyond. The kitchen has been updated with two dishwashers, three ovens, a sub-zero fridge and freezer, warming drawers, trash compactor and more. From the entrance pavilion, a sweeping staircase leads downstairs to the two-story living room with its beautiful fireplace and views of the South Shore. For those with mobility issues, a thoughtfully added elevator is available. A cozy wet bar and powder room are conveniently located in the same area. The adjacent oval dining room is enhanced by sweeping windows, marble floors and a dramatic Bermuda stone atrium. Adjacent to the room is the wood-paneled library with fireplace and glass doors leading to a large covered patio and cocktail lawn. Upstairs in the South wing is the Master suite complete with separate dressing room and bathroom. There is also a study or additional bedroom with en-suite bathroom. The North wing features a study and 3 additional guest bedrooms all with en-suite bathrooms. In addition to the bedrooms and the staff accommodations within the main house there are a private, self-contained 2 bed, 1 bath apartment and a 1 bed, 1 bath apartment. There are 3 garages and 4 water-tanks to help support this large property.
